

SENATOR M'KELLAR WANTS BRITISH TO
MAKE AN APOLOGY

Says Chancellor Cast
Aspersions on America

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The administration was called upon by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, speaking in the senate today to make "immediate demand upon the British government to disavow the statements of its chancellor of the exchequer casting aspersions upon the American senate and the American house of representatives and upon the American people and lastly, upon the American debt funding commission."

He read the statement given out Saturday by the British chancellor, Stanley Baldwin upon arriving in England and said that if Mr. Baldwin had exhibited the same elements of sordid parody and uttered the same crude attacks upon the American people and the American congress while he was here then the American debt funding commission should not have treated with him at all.

Continuing, Senator McKellar asked:

"Where is the great Ambassador Hurley? Why does he not raise his voice in behalf of his government and the American people? He never seems to be on hand when something real is going on."

Senator McKellar quoted Mr. Baldwin's statement that "the debt can be funded only on such terms as can be got thru congress," and added:

"Evidently according to Mr. Baldwin, he had no trouble with the debt funding commission or the administration. It would be all plain sailing if it had not been for what he evidently looked upon as the ignorant congress with which he had indirectly to deal. He virtually accused the debt funding commission of putting putty into his hands and that he would have no trouble in making any agreement he might have wished if he had only to deal with that commission."

Spread the Salve.

"When our British friends wanted to borrow the $4,700,000,000 from us," he continued, "they went before both branches of the congress, with compliments and flattery, with expressions of good will, with sentiments of esteem and respect with gratitude, which they said they would never forget and yet when pay day comes around, they send another commission over here that deals in the dark."

"They never came even near either branch of congress and then Mr. Baldwin tells the British people that they could have made a deal for the payment of these debts to their own liking if it hadn't been for the uninformed and purely political congress that held the American commission back and prevented the British commission from getting what it desired in the way of a settlement."

"I am sure that Mr. Baldwin's statement that western senators and representatives and western people are ignorant of international business and finance is quite untrue. His statement that a majority of the senators come from agricultural and pastoral communities, while technically true is an attempt to cast odium on such senators. His statement that the people in the west merely sell wheat and hog and do not think about anything else is a disgusting effort at wit and a shining display of ignorance."

UNCONSCIOUS FROM COLD, PILOT DROPS
NEARLY FOUR MILES

Recovers Senses and Rights Plane 400 Feet from Ground

(By The Associated Press)
MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Jan. 29.—Unconscious because of the severe cold, First Lieutenant James D. Summers, a pilot of the First Pursuit Group at Selfridge field, fell from an altitude of 19,000 feet to within 400 feet of the ground Saturday afternoon, a drop of nearly four miles before he recovered his senses, righted his plane and made a safe landing. Announcement of his experience was kept secret by aviators at Selfridge field until today.

Summers had been ordered to take part in maneuvers by Brigadier General William G. Mitchell. With several other aviators he mounted to a height of 19,000 feet when the thermometers on the plane registered 20 degrees below zero.

Summers was half conscious when other aviators reached him after his descent. Examining physicians announced nerves in his eyes had been frozen, causing temporary blindness. He practically had recovered today it was announced.

Describing his experience today Lieutenant said:

"At 19,000 feet my motor was running smoothly but the cold seemed to chill me. I was making about 175 miles an hour. Suddenly everything began to get hazy and I started to work the controls. Then everything went black. When I revived it was dropping rapidly and but 400 feet above the earth. Somehow I don't now how I got my ship under control and made a safe landing."

CAPLASES ORDERED
ISSUED FOR ARREST
FOR FRED LUNDIN

Follow Returning of Blanket Indictment by Jury

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Caplases ordering the arrest of Fred Lundin, known as the silent power behind the political machine of Mayor Thompson and 23 others were issued today following the returning by the grand jury of a blanket indictment containing 24 counts of conspiracy to defraud.

The charges of conspiracy mentioned twice a sum of $1,000,000 which was said to compose graft from the school board and the illegal conversion of checks and vouchers from the board, city and state.

Immediately upon issuing of the warrants and their delivery to the sheriff's office they were recorded and given to deputies for service. Most of the men named were said to be in the city and were expected to appear and give bonds of $10,000 each which were fixed.

Lundin and his nephew, Virtrus Rohm, who also was among the named in the indictments were both out of the city and their whereabouts was not positively known. Lundin was thought to be in Cuba and Rohm was said to be in California.

Frederick A. Brown, special assistant attorney general indicated that an appeal will be made to Governor Len Small for extradition papers for both men.

Later Attorney Clarence Barrow reported to Chief Justice McKinley that he had been retained to defend Lundin and that the latter would arrive here Wednesday morning and give bonds either then or Thursday.

Lundin was said to be on his way to Chicago and would demand immediate trial.

INCOME WILL ABOUT
BALANCE THE OUTGO
AT CLOSE OF YEAR

Will be First Time
Since 1916, President Says

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Representatives of the government's business organization, assembled for consideration of budget problems were told today in a message from President Harding that for the first time since the fiscal year 1916, the nation's income and out-go probably would balance at the end of the current fiscal year on June 30. The president's message announced that instead of a deficit of $698,000,000, estimated at the beginning of the fiscal year, the economy drive had ten days ago forced a reduction into $92,000,000.

Mr. Harding urged a continuation of eliminating of waste declaring that by such continued attention would the balance be realized on June 30. Supplementing the president's plea, Brigadier General Lord, director of the budget called on all government workers to subordinate local, departmental or sectional requirements to the greater good of the whole people.

General Lord reported that the final estimate of expenditures for the current fiscal year surveyed January 15, was $3,574,554,132, with the forecast of receipts on the same day $3,481,964,959.

Leave Small Deficit.

This leaves, he pointed out, a deficit of slightly more than $92,000,000 and he expressed the belief that with five months of the fiscal year ahead in which to cut away less than one-fifth of the amount eliminated in the excess expenditures in the first seven months in the twelve month period the deficit could be eliminated.

General Lord's speech carried evidence in support of statements in the president's message that results only now were becoming apparent. He reviewed the work of the various agencies subordinate to the budget bureau, showing how thousands of dollars were cut from estimates here and there and millions in some instances were lopped off of the original figures by those intent on making the nation pay as it goes.

The administration's economy program alone has not been entirely responsible for the showing which now seems to warrant definite statements of a balanced budget this year, the general said. He pointed to increasing collections of revenue under the drive for back taxes by Commissioner Blair of the bureau of internal revenue and greater customs receipts from duties levied in the new tariff act. More highly specialized handling of all the government's revenue sources, he added also have brought in funds.

MEN ARE TO RIVAL
WOMEN THIS YEAR

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—Men are to outdo women in colorful clothing during the year. It was announced here tonight by Charles H. Bunnell, a member of the executive committee of the national association of merchant tailors in outlining the program for the organization's annual convention opening tomorrow.

"Nature decreed that the male of almost any species should be more colorfully attired than the female," he said. "This is shown by the plumage of birds. Yet in the human race men are drabs in dress while women effect colors. New weaves, richer in color and of more ornate pattern than ever before will be shown. Men's garments this season are to have a tendency toward the striking."

After a house provision which would have denied retirement pay to Major General Harbord who recently accepted a position with a radio concern had been eliminated, the army appropriation bill carrying approximately $340,000,000 was reported to the senate.

Predicting that at most federal expenditures during the current fiscal year would not exceed receipts by more than $92,000,000.

President Harding in a message read at the semi-annual meeting of the business organization of the government said it was possible that a deficit may be avoided completely.

The administration was called upon by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee to make immediate demand upon the British government to disavow statements of Chancellor Baldwin of the exchequer "casting aspersions" upon the American senate and the American house of representatives and upon the American people and lastly upon the American debt funding commission.

Those indicted are: Otto Katz, president; George H. Lander, vice president; and Sidney H. Miller, secretary.

One thousand offenses involving one million dollars' worth of whiskey, according to United States District Attorney Thomas H. Morrow, are alleged in the indictment, which charges the three men with having conspired to divert the whiskey without proper permits into channels for use as a beverage.

The indictments set forth that the whiskey was sold without permits at Owensboro, Frankfort, and Louisville, Ky., and at Troy, Ohio, and that it was sold to persons in Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Hannibal, Mo., and other cities.

Witnesses examined by the jury included retail druggists from various cities who it is alleged had dealings with the Independent Drug company, one of the largest wholesale drug concerns in Cincinnati.

The defendants also are charged with failing to keep a record of sales of whiskey and alcohol and failing to attach proper label, soliciting, repeating and permitting employees of the federal dispensing company and the Independent Drug company to solicit and receive orders from all parts of the country. As an overt act it is alleged the three officials named in the indictment sold for the Independent Drug company to the Newbro Drug company of Frankfort, Ky., 600 gallons of whiskey in 200 case lots of 24 quarts each without a permit.

M'CORMICK TELLS
U. S. SENATE ABOUT
EUROPE'S PROBLEMS

Suggests That Old World "Learn by Painful Failure"

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The problems of Europe were passed in review once again in the senate today when Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, who recently returned from a trip abroad, gave his colleagues some of his impressions of European conditions and recommended that the old world be permitted "to learn by painful failure" the error of its ways.

The senator delivered his opinions in a speech on farm credits legislation telling the senate that although he favored the Lenroot-Anderson and Norbeck bills, such measures should not be expected to restore agriculture prices in view of other economic influences at home and abroad.

"The markets of Europe," said Senator McCormick, "are dominated by factors largely beyond our control or influence. Europe today needs breadstuffs more than she can buy. She needs $500,000,000 worth of American wheat and corn. But her economic restoration, the restoration of her buying power, the establishment of true and enduring peace are blocked at the moment by the bitterness, bad faith and bickering at Lausanne the breach of the peace in Meinel, the break between Britain and her continental allies, the presence of the battalions of Frech in the Ruhr."

"As usual in hard times," Mr. McCormick said, "some men are inevitably tempted to prescribe panaceas."

He called on those who are advocating action in the present European crisis to set forth precisely what they want done and referring to predictions that the league of nations would restore stability to the world, he continued:

"The league has proved a poor peace maker or peace keeper. 'Justice and mercy are still too little known, too little understood, too weak to carry weight in the councils of Europe unless they can invoke the aid of forces strong enough to compel for them a reverence and regard which they do not themselves inspire. 'Time and labor are the prime requisites for the restoration of Europe. Unhappily she must learn by painful failure the road to recovery."

INFLUENCES BEING BROUGHT TO BEAR
TO AVOID RUPTURE

Allied Draft of Treaty Will Be Presented Wednesday

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANE, Jan. 29.—Constructive influences are being brought to bear on the delegations at the Near East Peace Conference to reduce to a minimum the chances of a rupture of the conference on Wednesday when the allied draft of the proposed treaty of peace is officially submitted to the Turks. Although the allied front still remains unbroken, there are clear indications that France and Italy, at least, will not subscribe to any proceedings having the ring of an ultimatum to the Turks when the draft treaty is handed them.

As for the Turks they are beginning to show evidences of despair. The treaty was presented privately to them today. It consists of more than 150 typewritten pages and contains many clauses to which they are absolutely opposed, and many others inserted at the last minute which they say they are unable to understand.

The idea of an adjournment is becoming repugnant. It is pointed out that such a step might well be interpreted as a rupture and that despite the terms of the Mudana armistice this would open the possibilities for renewal of hostilities from even the consideration of which all Europe shrinks.

Richard W. Child, chief American spokesman at the conference is filling a important role in the present attempts to reconcile the views of the delegations.

FRENCH OFFICIAL
SAYS RESISTANCE
WOULD HAVE COME

Nothing Would Have Been Gained by Granting Moratorium

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 29.—The resistance that the French now are meeting from the Germans in the Ruhr would have been encountered at the end of a moratorium had one been granted a high official of the French foreign office declared tonight. Furthermore, the moratorium would have facilitated military preparation on the part of Germany as well as the economic interests of that country consequently the French would have been in a much worse position than they are today.

"We have lanced an abscess," he said, "and we shall stick by the issue until it is thoroughly cleaned and healed."

There is an air of greatest confidence in official circles that favorable results will follow the action in the Ruhr. Even the closing of French blast furnaces because of the lack of coke is looked upon as merely a necessary and temporary inconvenience that must be suffered in order to attain the end in view.

It was said by a high official this afternoon that the leaders of the iron industry had been consulted on this question and that they had all agreed they would draw their fires now than see all hopes of collecting the reparations due to France fade away.

There is far greater uneasiness around French official quarters over the situation in Asia Minor and Meinel than that in the Ruhr, it is stated.

Premier Poincare is so exercised over the possibilities of failure of the Near East conference at Lausanne that he has sent an urgent appeal to Mustafa Kemal Pasha asking him to use his influence to moderate the Turkish viewpoint.

As to Meinel, the international district on the Baltic recently invaded by Lithuanian irregulars, the allies are understood to be undispensed to send more troops there although the latest information received by the French officials leads them to fear a possible raid upon Meinel from other than Lithuanian quarters.

LEWIS IS ASKED TO CLARIFY POSITION ON NATIONALIZATION

Want to Know Where
He Stands on U. M.
W. A. Proposal

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America was asked tonight by Norman Thomas, director of the league for industrial democracy to "clarify" his position on the union's proposal to nationalize the coal industry.

The request followed the resignation of C. J. Golden, president of district No. 9 of the union from membership on the miners' nationalization research committee, as a protest against an attack on the committee's report launched yesterday by Ellis Searles, editor of the Mine Workers Journal.

In his statement Searles asked the public not to regard as the union's plan the scheme for nationalization recently made public by Mr. Golden under auspices of the league, asserting that the plan had not been approved by the union and that it was framed by "Greenwich Parlor Coal Miners."

As the league for industrial democracy assisted the union committee in preparing its report Mr. Thomas takes the view that he and his associates are the "parlor coal diggers" Mr. Searles referred to.

Mr. Lewis' alleged action in closing the columns of the official journal to the committee "raises the question," says Mr. Thomas, "whether you, the acknowledged head of the Mine Workers, really stand for nationalization as a living issue, or only in principle as the diplomats say."

"To favor nationalization but to forbid public discussion of concrete plans reminds me of the old rhyme which begins: 'Mother may I go out to swim?'"

"The public has a right to ask you to clarify your position," continues the statement. "The league would be honored to offer you the platform it offered Mr. Golden in order that you may set the public right on an issue which cannot wait for discussion until the miners' convention in 1924. You may prefer less 'radical' auspices under which to speak, but whatever platform you choose can you be content to let Mr. Searles' statement stand as your last word?"

BELL BOYS MAY GO ON STRIKE TODAY

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 29.—Bell boys in the historic Leland Hotel, Republican headquarters for many years will go on strike tomorrow morning unless the demands for higher wages are granted. The bell boys contend that there is no money in the business anymore and the traveling public and politicians are afraid to give "tips" as was the custom in previous years when a boy could average at least $10 a day when the legislature was in session or politicians gathered for conventions or conferences.

A THOUGHT

"Hate saith unto Him, what is truth?"—John 18:38.

That great mystery of time, were there no others; the elms, the silent, never-resting thing called time, rolling, rushing on, swift, silent, like an all-embreling ocean tide, on which we and the universe swim like exhalations, like apparitions which are, and then are not; this is forever very literally a mirage; a thing to strike dumb for we have no word to speak about it.—Thomas Carlyle.

Earthworms, which are eyeless, can feel thru the skin.

THE BLACK GHOST

(N. E. A.)

A startling ghost story is creating a sensation in England. Lord St. Audries claims he saw the ghost of his father, who was a man of high standing. His father was "chief whip" of the Conservative party, also vice-chamberlain to Queen Victoria and King Edward.

Lord St. Audries encountered his "black ghost" in the traditional theatrical atmosphere. He didn't believe in ghosts. But he was curious. So, on a week-end visit, he and his hosts decided to investigate a nearby haunted house.

This haunted house was a deserted dwelling, crumbling to decay, littered with fallen plaster and other rubbish.

The ghost's headquarters were supposed to be in a second-floor bathroom where, some 50 years ago, an insane doctor had committed an atrocious murder and later committed suicide. Br-r-r-r.

Lord St. Audries mounted guard in the upstairs hall in sight of the bathroom door. He had a candle for light. His friends remained outside. (Most of us would.)

Here is Lord St. Audries' report of what happened:

"Out of the door, down the dark passage, something rushed like an immense bat towards me. It was black from head to foot and

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Age Speaks

ITS eyes are burning with a lustful glow,
And there is cruel purpose in its face.
With muscles tense and with a tigerish grace,
It gathers for a spring. Ah, well I know
How strong it is, and how its pulses flow
With hot blood that throbs and leaps apace.
Not all my cunning nor my power and place
Shall long avert the inevitable blow.

GOD, how I hate it, as I feel its breath
That flames about me. Yet, I smile; my fear Shall not be plain. But certain as is death
I know the fact that ages have made clear,
The cosmic inescapable cold truth
That I shall fall before this monster—Youth!

(Copyright, 1923, NEA Service)

It seemed to be built in the form of a very powerful man. But two things made me know that it was no human being. First I could see no face, just a hideous blank. Secondly, tho it came with huge leaps over the rough, rickety floor, it made absolutely no noise.

"But when this thing dashed out I was struck backwards with an irresistible force. x x x I found myself fighting, struggling with I know not what, down the steep stairs."

Having escaped, Lord St. Audries learns that no dog can be coaxed into the garden around the haunted house. This is the most significant part of his story.

Neurologists, specializing in psychic phenomena, would claim that what Lord Audries saw was a creation of his mind—a hallucination while in a highly-strung psycho-imaginary condition. Authorities like Hudson admit that so-called ghosts are actually "seen." But they do not admit that seeing them necessarily proves the existence and presence of departed spirits. Hallucinations in dreams seem very real.

Many others firmly believe in ghosts. You can get just so far with psychic phenomena, then reach a point where you have nothing to stand on except faith.

After all, faith is man's greatest power.

TO MAKE THIRTEENTH VISIT TO AUTO SHOW

L. F. O'Donnell will leave tonight for Chicago to spend several days at the automobile show, and to be present at the banquet given by the Paige company to their dealers.

The trip tonight will be the thirteenth annual event of this nature for Mr. O'Donnell and he has seen the Chicago National Auto Show grow from very small beginnings to an enormous affair and so comprehensive that a person really needs several days to see it all. Mr. O'Donnell says, however, that while Jacksonville shows do not cover as much floor space, there are none that excel them in beauty and interest.

Mr. O'Donnell entered the automobile business in 1907 and in 1908 brought to Jacksonville the first Buick. Mr. O'Donnell is the dean of automobile men in this section having been continuously in that business for over fifteen years.

'The Village Blacksmith'

John Hammond, the village blacksmith, is left with three children by the death of his wife. The youngest, Johnnie, is crippled, and the oldest, Bill, goes off to medical college, his greatest ambition being to become a great surgeon and cure Johnnie. Alice, the daughter, takes the place of her mother in the humble home. Anson Brigham, worthless son of a skinflint squire, returns from college and trifles with Alice's affections. He learns that she holds $840 belonging to the church and steals it. The town gossip has spread tales about Anson's frequent meetings with Alice, much to the embarrassment of the girl, and when she is forced to admit to the church that its funds have disappeared, her position is painfully trying.

A friend of Alice learns that Anson has taken the money and hurries to the Hammond home in a driving snow storm to tell Alice, but Alice, driven to desperation, has left the house to end her life in the river. The girl friend tells the blacksmith, who hurries after his daughter and saves her at the water's edge.

In the meantime, the crippled brother, learning of Anson's villainy, drags himself over the ground to the squire's house where he denounces Anson to the latter's father. His reward is a horsewhipping by father and son, which is interrupted by the arrival of the blacksmith, who thrashes the two and hauls them to the church to confess the truth about the disappearance of the money.

The happiness at Alice's vindication is heightened when Bill, the elder brother, performs an operation on Johnnie and restores to him the use of his legs. Alice marries the man of her choice and Johnnie takes an old school chum for his bride.

RICE GROWING IN PRIMORIA INCREASES
Vladivostok.—Measures are being taken to make the Primoria an independent food producing unit. Up to now this province has been dependent on Manchuria for food, but since 1918 this cultivation of rice has been growing steadily, until now there are under cultivation 45,000 acres, giving 1-2 million pounds of husked rice a year. There is also a tremendous increase in the cultivation of flax and the harvest of 1912 gave 1,300,000 pounds. The country is ideal for the cultivation of the opium poppy and thousands of pounds were formerly produced here. China and Moscow, however, are against opium cultivation and this year strong measures will be taken to suppress its growth.

PLAN WHOLESALE CHINCH BUG CREMATION
URBANA — (By A. P.) — Wholesale cremation of chinch bugs in affected Illinois counties when conditions are right, is the premeditated arrangement of state entomologists, co-operations with agricultural men throughout the state. When all details have been mapped out Dean Mumford of the college of agriculture will advise leaders in each county by radio to "apply the match."
"Experimental work of the last eight years shows that approximately 55 to 65 per cent of the bugs can be killed by burning them in their winter quarters," says State Entomologist Flint. "Such cremation can be done any time between the first of November and April 15, but to be effective it must be done over large areas."
"The weather has not been favorable for burning up to the present time but there will be one or two periods of several days each when the bugs will leave their winter quarters. Every farmer in infested counties should locate the places where they are wintering—along hedges, fences and woodlands, especially on the south sides. Whenever the weather is dry, burn these areas thoroughly."
"A survey of the chinch bug conditions in Illinois, made during the season, has shown their prevalence in the following counties in sufficient numbers to cause a loss of at least 5 to 10 bushels of corn to the acre in 1923, if the spring weather is favorable to their development:
"Hancock, Adams, Pike, Calhoun, Jersey, Madison, Macoupin, Scott, Morgan, Brown, Schuyler, McLean, McDonough, Fulton, Cass, Greene, Sangamon, Menard, Mason, Peoria, Woodford, Tazewell, Logan, Christian, Montgomery, Shelby, Moultrie, Platt, De Witt, Ford, Champaign, Douglas, Coles, Cumberland, Clark, Edgar, Vermillion, Macon, Livingston, Grundy, Iroquois and Kankakee."

STATE SCHOOL AND COLONY FOUNDED IN 1785

He has been in the institution 48 years.

FARM BUREAU NOTES
Thieves Make Big Haul—Thieves raided the farm of Holland Wilcox, southwest of Franklin on Tuesday night, Jan. 23rd, and carried away 20 bushels of clover seed, the hams of five hogs, the shoulders of three hogs, 30 gallons of lard and 150 feet derrier rope. The value of the property is in the neighborhood $350.00. The farm bureau is offering a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the thieves and the recovery of the property. In that same locality in November thieves stole 6 bushels of clover seed from the farm of A. D. Gibson. A real gang seems to be at work.
How a Cooperative Commission Company Works—Our American farmers do not score high in co-operation. Many do not really grasp the idea of the cooperative sale of livestock. They are apt to be very suspicious of their own organizations. The cooperative commission firm organized by the farm bureau at East St. Louis is rebating a portion of the net earnings of the members in proportion to the business done. The Murrayville Livestock Shipping Assoc. at on recently received $71.76 rebate or an average of $5.32 on each car shipped by that association. This is 30 per cent of the "commissions" paid in by the members for the sale of livestock. The firm had previously rebated the membership fee. This information has been furnished by the farm bureau office by Ira P. Story, the manager at Murrayville.
Certified Seed Potatoes—The farm bureau will arrange this spring for a car of certified seed potatoes. These will bear the blue label of the Minnesota organization that certifies the seed. The car will be handled thru a local organization at a very nominal margin if taken directly from the car and at a higher price after they are moved to the warehouse.
Saturday at the Farm Bureau Office—The executive committee of the farm bureau will hold its regular monthly meeting at 10 o'clock. In addition the farm bureau members who have seed oats, clover, soybeans or seed corn will be on hand to sell whatever they have to whatever farmer buyers may appear. Arrangements have been made for using a part of the office of the Kopperl Agency on this day.
Shipment of Soybeans—The farmers in the vicinity of Rees Station will make a shipment of soybeans this week to an Ohio seed firm, John Wynn, Leslie Leak, Robert Gibson and Grover Caldwell are the consignors.
The Mild Winter and Chinch Bugs—The winter so far has been productive to a good crop of chinch bugs this coming season. The inspection by J. H. Bigger, assistant State Field Entomologist, reveals the presence of plenty of them in the bunches of grass on the south and west side of fields and also on the coarse grass along hedges. The first step in control is a winter burning campaign, start now. We shall say more later.

ILLINOIS COPE WANTS STATE POLICE

COMMUNIST OR

FEDERAL OFFICER?

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—

Francis M. Morrow was characterized alternately by witnesses as a "radical communist" and by Michigan state police as an operative of the United States government at hearings today in this city and in Camden, N. J., preliminary to the trial on February 26 at St. Joseph, Mich., of 23 members of the workers party of America arrested at a convention at Bridgman, Mich., last August.

O. L. Smith, assistant attorney general of Michigan and Charles W. Gore, district attorney of Berrien county, Michigan, endeavored to show that Morrow was an operative employed by the federal government to obtain evidence against the "red" element in the workers party of America.

Frank I. Walsh, chief counsel for the defendants who will stand trial on charges of having violated the criminal syndicalist law of Michigan conducted the hearing. In their cross-examination of witnesses, Messrs. Smith and Gore sought to bring out that the workers party of America was the legal organization of justice agents were questioned but declined to reveal details of investigation conducted by them. The principal deposition that at the session in Camden was that of Miss Edna Lumblut. She admitted she was a member of the Workers Party of America but denied that she knew of her father's activity as a special agent.

Mrs. Ursula Fawcett of West North street was a week end guest of Miss Dorothy Kennedy in Chapel.

Mrs. E. R. Stevenson of the Point neighborhood was listed among Monday shoppers in the city.

MAKES STATEMENT ABOUT STANDARD OIL

Col. Stewart, Executive Head of Company, Made Interesting Comments on Gasoline Price—Denies Charge of Combination

Col. Robert W. Stewart, of Chicago, chairman of the board of directors and executive head of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), the largest single marketer of gasoline in the world, testified before the senate committee on manufactures which is investigating the alleged high price of gasoline. Col. Stewart made the following statement to the committee:

"It is wrong to charge that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana has a monopoly of the oil business in the middle west, or that it can arbitrarily dictate the price of gasoline, either up or down. While the Standard Oil Company of Indiana is the largest single marketer of gasoline in the world, it is the so-called independents, members of the National Petroleum Association, whose president testified in this hearing, were to cut the price of gasoline five cents a gallon or any sum tomorrow, the Standard Oil Company of Indiana would have to do likewise, and do it quick, or lose its business.

Cites Reasons
"Here are the reasons: 'As regards crude oil, our competitors own practically all of the production in the Mid-Continent field, from which source we derive our principal supply.'

"As regards refining facilities, our competitors have approximately five times more refining capacity than has the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

"As regards sales of gasoline, lubricating oils and other petroleum products in the territory where we have distributing facilities, our competitors have twice as many service stations as we maintain, while the number of bulk sales stations operated by them about equals our own.

"With the great bulk of production in the hands of competitors far in excess of our own it is manifest that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana can not so dominate the market as arbitrarily to put the price of petroleum products up or down. We must of necessity ride along with our competitors so long as they maintain a price which follows approximately the dictates of the law of supply and demand, and is not exorbitant, but is normally based upon a reasonable profit.

"From a review of the testimony given before this committee by the so-called independents to date, it would seem that while this is an investigation into the alleged high price of gasoline, the low price, their principal complaint is against the insistence of the larger companies in trying to hold down the price to a reasonable figure.

Many Stockholders
"The Standard Oil Company of Indiana is an independent corporation, not a member of any trust or combination. It is owned by 28,267 stockholders, of whom more than 8,000 are employees, ranging from common laborers to executives. While originally a large amount of the stock was held by comparatively few people, today there is no stockholder who owns more than 3-4 per cent of the whole.

"Contrary to the general impression, Mr. John D. Rockefeller owns not a single share of stock in this company. Among our largest stockholders are General Education Board, the Rockefeller Foundation, the University of Chicago, and other educational and charitable organizations.

"The Standard Oil Company of Indiana is engaged in the manufacture and sale of petroleum products. The management is vested in a board of directors of nine members, all actively engaged in this business and no other. Of these nine, two rose from office boys, one began with the company as a common laborer, one as a timekeeper, one as a stenographer, one as a mechanic's helper, one as a draftsman, one as a chemist, and one as a member of the legal department. All earned their right to places on this board thru their own efforts.

"The Standard Oil Company of Indiana markets its products principally in eleven states—Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma, where it serves a population of more than 30,000,000 people.

Sources of Supply
"Originally this company had no crude oil production, but the war demonstrated the necessity of a permanent source of supply for our refineries. As a result, during 1920 and 1921, substantial interest was acquired in the Midwest Refining Company, and a half interest in the Sinclair Pipe Line, as well as half interest in the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company, which has for its purpose the purchasing of crude oil to provide business for the pipe line company. The Sinclair Pipe Line already was constructed and we had the choice of acquiring an interest in it or building a new line of our own. To have gone to the expense of building a new line, when one already laid was not being used to capacity, would have been an economic crime. Thus we now have some crude production of our own, but we are still dependent upon others for the major source of our supply.

"As regards capitalization, our authorized capital stock has resently been increased from $140,-

000,000 to $250,000,000. Prior to this, the company was heavily under-capitalized, and while its earnings have apparently been large when figured on a basis of capitalization, when figured on the actual money invested, they have not been excessive.

"It is interesting to note that while during the ten years ending

January 1st, 1922, this company has paid to its stockholders in cash dividends the sum of $74,561,005.60, during the same period it has paid in federal and local taxes the sum of $79,545,- 160.35.

"In its treatment of employees,

the company challenges comparison.

We have an industrial relation plan whereby employees themselves pass on wages, hours, and all other matters relating to their general welfare. We have an annuity plan whereby veteran employees are retired on pensions and their dependents taken care of. Under this plan more than $500,000 has already been distributed. We have a plan whereby employees can purchase stock in the company on the installment plan, the company giving them

$50.00 worth of stock for every $100.00 worth they buy. These are merely the high spots.

The Burton Process
"At enormous expense, this company carried on experiments which resulted in the Burton process for the manufacture of gasoline, doubling and trebling the yield of gasoline from crude, thus maintaining the price of gasoline at a much lower figure than it otherwise would be. The company has not kept this process to itself, but licenses its use by any refiner who wishes to use it.

"The management of this company appreciates that a monopoly is abhorrent to the minds of the American people and will not be tolerated by them. It does not desire, nor does it endeavor to put any competitor out of business. We believe, in fact, that our competitors are as essential to our business as our customers.

All we are trying to do is to obtain a fair return to our stockholders on the money they have invested, and at the same time to perform our entire duty to our employees and to the public."

TAX LEVY ORDINANCE IS PASSED BY COUNCIL

Measure Passed With Emergency Clause Attached—Primary Election Ordinance Given First Reading.

At the regular meeting of the city council held Monday evening the Tax levy ordinance was read and adopted with an emergency clause attached. The council also gave a first reading of the primary election ordinance and laid over under the rules. The Garbage ordinance and that creating the office of sanitary inspector were given a second reading and adopted.

When the roll was called it showed all aldermen present with Mayor Crabtree presiding and J. E. Scott clerk. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A resolution transferring $88.73 from the Consolidated Filtration and power plant bond fund to the Consolidated Filtration and Power plant bond interest fund was read and adopted.

Alderman Rowe recommended that commissions be issued to Thomas Doyle and Ralph Thomas as special policemen without pay at the plant of J. Capps and Sons. The recommendation was concurred in.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for an Aerial fire truck the bids to be in by February 19.

An amendment to the building ordinance relative to the material to be used in roofs within the fire limits was read. The amendment merely added the words "or concrete" covered with pitch, felt or tar to the present ordinance. It was adopted with an emergency clause attached.

The Tax levy ordinance was read and adopted with an emergency clause attached. The Primary election ordinance was given a first reading and laid over under the rules. The ordinance sets the date of the primary for March 13.

The garbage ordinance and an ordinance creating a sanitary inspector were given second readings and adopted.

Alderman Lonergan asked for information about getting water pipe laid on a street. Public Engineer Henderson said it could be done by petition and gave Alderman Lonergan a petition to have citizens sign.

H. E. Wheeler was present and entered a protest against the fire escapes and the wooden porch on the Strawn building. Mr. Wheeler said he had asked the contractor if he was going to remove the old fire escapes and the porch and was told that it was not a part of his contract.

Mr. Wheeler said further that the fire escapes were dangerous and had not been used for a good many years. Speaking further he called attention to outside cellar entrances in the alley in the rear which took up several feet of the alley. Mr. Wheeler said these doors should be removed and the coal holes placed in the wall of the building which would make the alley wide enough for two vehicles to pass.

Mayor Crabtree said it had been called to his attention that no building committee had been appointed and he named Aldermen Sorrells, Ehnle and McGinnis to serve and this matter was referred to this committee.

Mr. Conover called attention to the need of a wire inspector for the city and the matter was discussed at length by the council. Mayor Crabtree named Aldermen Harmon, Chapin and Sorrells to take up the matter of an ordinance providing for electrical inspection. The council then on motion adjourned.

ST. LOUIS PAPER TELLS OF WORK AT J. S. H.

Post-Dispatch of Last Sunday Gave Interesting Account of What is Accomplished by Occupational Therapy at Jacksonville State Hospital.

The magazine section of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch last Sunday carried a two page article on the work in the occupational therapy at Jacksonville state hospital. Under the caption "How Work, Plus Amusement, is Curing Diseased Minds in Illinois," is given the story of what is being accomplished at the local institution by the simple plan of giving the patients something to do.

From this article, which the writer declares is "merely an effort to set forth briefly some of the things accomplished at Jacksonville thru routing idleness with work," there are given below a few paragraphs:

"There are no long lines of chair-sitters in the State hospital now—blank brains back of listless eyes staring at blank walls. The straightjacket and the padded cell are of the past. There are amusements galore. Including dancing as of old. And how they dance.

"Now and then there is a community sing with a patient at the piano and another leading the chorus, the band made up of inmates supplying music for dancing at another place in the asylum.

"The simple yet powerful antidote to idleness, both inside and outside an asylum for mental patients, is work, plus amusement. That is the sole specific—just work, useful labor—to occupy the mind and remove cobwebs from the brain, mixed with a little play. All insane persons have minds, as a matter of course. Their minds have become warped from some cause, frequently physical. Idleness enhances the warping. Work stops it and reverses the process. Work, slowly in some cases and rapidly in others, takes the kinks out of mentality. Work—occupation—cures insanity.

"Dr. E. L. Hill, who is a humanitarian as well as a physician, has proved the truth of that statement that work-occupation cures insanity. In his more than eight years' superintendency of the State Hospital he has had opportunity to put his theories, briefly outlined above, into practical operation. He has cured and is curing, day by day, in every way, the minds of many of his patients. He is curing them because he substitutes the boon of work for the bane of idleness. The patients rise up from their chairs, dig in at pleasant toil, dig their own minds out of the bog of insanity, and go home mentally and physically well, calling Dr. Hill blessed.

"At present there are 1700 patients out of an asylum population of 2400 in the occupational therapy, industrial and vocational training group. The present group plan includes the observation or receiving group, the occupational and industrial group, the infirmary group and the acute hospital group."

"Both men and women work at making so-called willow chairs of paper fibre. Flower boxes, tall vases for flower pots, hassocks and other articles useful or ornamental are made also of this and of other material. But so many and varied are the occupations at Jacksonville, the salvaging sanctities of work, that space forbids further description. The big fact leaps out thus: at Jacksonville the casual visitor will carry away no raw material for future weaving of nightmares."

GREENWICH VILLAGE FOLLIES GOOD SHOW

Appears Before Standing Room Only Audience at Grand Monday Night.

The Greenwich Village Follies which appeared before a standing room only audience at the Grand Monday evening proved to be one of the best attractions seen here in many months.

For the past two years the Greenwich Village Follies has been making Mr. Zigfield's follies step some to keep its laurels. The offering this year is said to be the best yet put before the public. Judging from the company appearing at the Grand it is worthy of all the good things that have been said about it in other cities.

Carrying one of the largest companies that has appeared in Jacksonville since before the war, the Greenwich Follies displayed some excellent talent. In fact there was so much of it that it almost is impossible to pick any outstanding stars.

The work of George Dale, Judy Carson, Stanley Rogers stood out especially during the evening. The dancers also were good, the work of Antonio Nello and Mlle. Anna Nurova from the Imperial Theater, Moscow Russia, being marvelous. In fact every member of the cast and the part assigned in such manner as to produce a most finished performance.

The costuming was the most magnificent ever seen on a Jacksonville stage and the scenic effects were beautiful and in keeping with the various scenes depicted.

The large audience had nothing but words of commendation as it passed out of the theater last night. Manager Scott is to be complimented on bringing such an attraction to Jacksonville and the patronage demonstrated that people are still willing and eager to patronize shows that are worth while.

MANY TO STAGE GIFT CAMPAIGNS

News of the success of the Jacksonville merchants' big Gift Campaign seems to have spread rapidly until it has become known all over the country side. Not only has the news of it spread, but with it has spread a desire on the part of surrounding towns to "do likewise." The result is that a number of towns have already announced their intention of staging campaigns and they offer all sorts of gifts to be distributed among their patrons at the end of the campaign period.

Springfield, Roodhouse, White Hall, Woodson and Carrollton are among the towns to stage gift campaigns. These towns have all sent representatives to the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, asking for information as to "how it was done." Basket Ball

The Junior class basketball team, the champions of the J. H. S. interclass basketball tournament wrote to Springfield high school and challenged the class championship team of that school to play a curtain raiser to the J. H. S. Springfield game Friday night on the Capitol City high school floor. The athletic manager of Springfield high, R. C. Buley, telephoned over yesterday and stated that they could not play with the J. H. S. juniors because they have not class championship teams and as a number of the Hi-Y basketball players are high school letter men, that team would not be qualified to play with the local team. Dick Arnold is the captain of the Junior team and Floyd Sanders is the manager.

It is understood that a curtain raiser game is being arranged for the Springfield game Friday night. Local fans are looking forward with great interest to the Friday night scrap between the J. H. S. quintet and the Springfield boys. The two teams are keen rivals and when the Capitol City lads came over to Jacksonville for the last game they were taken into camp by the local team.

The Springfield team is no doubt anxious to even up the score on Friday night and the J. H. S. men are just as anxious to show 'em it can't be done.

Market Report

NEW LOW RECORDS
IN STOCK MARKET

FINANCIAL SUMMARY
Monday's total sales $42-
000 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 90.26; net gain, 26.
High 1922, 103.43; low,
78.59.
Twenty railroads averaged 87.20; net gain, 73.
High 1922 93.99, low 73.43.
Bond sales, par value, $11-539,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Sharp depreciation of the foreign exchanges and further liquidation of French bond federal of which established new low records apparently had no effect on today's stock market which was marked by a remarkable buying demonstration in railroad shares gains of 1 to nearly 3½ points recorded by more than a score of active issues.

Industrials were irregular during the early part of the session but rallied when the demand for the rails embraced a number of investment issues.
The abrupt decline in foreign exchanges was generally considered as a reflection of the local and European financial communities' pessimism concerning the success of the French invasion of the Ruhr. French prices dropped 16 points to 6.13 cents, the lowest price in two years, and the German mark was quoted at
.0025 cents or 40,000 to the American dollar. This represented a week end depression of approximately 28 per cent. Saturday's closing price being .0035 cents.
Demand sterling sold around $4.63.

Switching of speculative interest from the industrials to the rails on the stock market followed the publication of additional December earnings statements which disclosed in several instances substantial increases in net income. Baltimore & Ohio was the most active of the carriers, nearly 40,000 shares changing hands at prices between 46 and 49, the closing price of 49 representing a net gain of 25 points.
Gains of two points or more also were scored by Chesapeake & Ohio
"Nickle Plate," common and second preferred, "Soo," Rock Island, St. Paul, preferred and Chicago & Northwestern. The rise in rail shares was used to cover selling of a number of industrials.

Fisher Body broke 14 points to 179 on announcement of a new note offering.

Call money held at 4½ per cent
until towards the close when it advanced to five per cent. The United States Government securities were slightly reactionary, the losses ranging from 2 to 6 cents on $100.

DISCUSS NEW PROJECTS FOR TRADE EXTENSION

Will Try to Take Delegation to the "Move More Merchandise" Conference in St. Louis—Other Matters Considered.

At the executive board meeting of the Commercial Division, held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Monday morning, several committees were appointed and some new projects of trade extension activity outlined.

H. A. Breddon and C. E. Segner were appointed as a committee to have in charge the local work connected with the Move-More-Merchandise conference to be held in St. Louis on February 6, 7, and 8.

The work of this committee will be to interest local business men in going to St. Louis and attending this conference which will be of vital importance to them.

Speakers of national reputation in the world of retail trade will be present and demonstrations will be given in the latest methods of salesmanship and retailing in general.

A committee was authorized to work out plans for a Spring opening and window display similar to the one which was staged last year. This spring opening will probably be held about the time that the auto show is held. It was voted at this meeting to place Lloyd S. Reil in charge as general chairman of a new trade extension project, that is to be launched about the first week in March. The committee is not in a position at present to make a public announcement as to what this project will be but they feel confident that it will meet with a hearty response from the public and business men in general.

The executive board also recommended to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce that a membership drive be opened in order that retail merchants now outside the Chamber of Commerce can be invited to join the organization before the beginning of this new trade extension venture. They also suggested that some steps be taken to mark out a "City Tour," in Jacksonville. This tour will start in the business district and would take in all points of interest in the city such as, factories, state institutions, parks, schools and colleges. Such a sight seeing tour would enable strangers to easily make their way about Jacksonville and see all the points of interest and beauty in the city.

EMERY

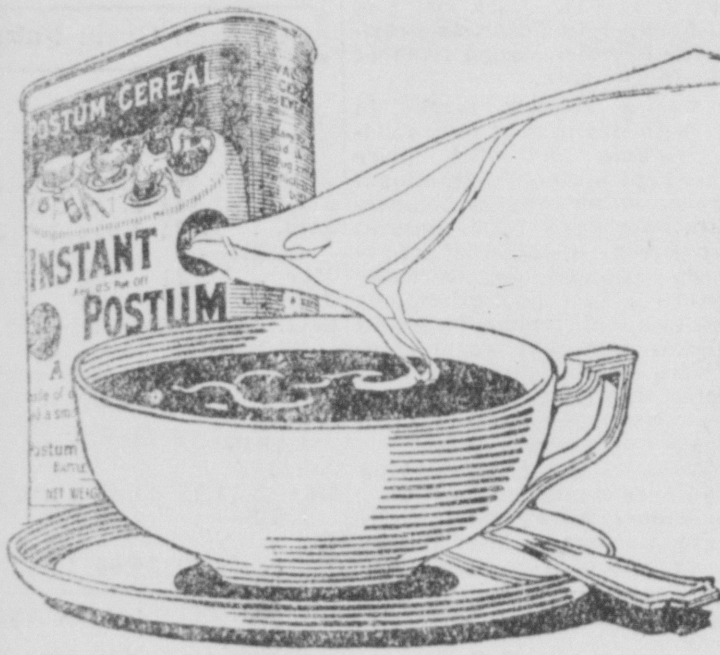

What does the cup supply for you?

Many people find harm to health in the seeming friendliness of coffee and tea. They first notice the unfriendly side of their table drink in sleeplessness and nerve-irritation—signs that health is being disturbed by the drug, caffeine, which these beverages contain.

It pays to face the facts when health is involved. It's a good plan to look for the cause of restless nights and nerve-fagged days.

Postum is a safe and satisfying mealtime drink for everybody. It meets every demand of taste, and it contains nothing which can disturb health. The children may safely share it with you—as many cups as desired, without risk of disagreeable after-effects.

There's charm without harm in Postum—the famous cereal beverage.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets; the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.
